

Global Ambassador Application

SPU Study Abroad seeks qualified and motivated students to serve as Global Ambassadors from Fall Quarter through Spring Quarter. Positions are volunteer based and require a three quarter commitment.

Global Ambassador Responsibilities:

- Assist with the general marketing and promotion of study abroad to SPU students
- Give presentations to classrooms and student organizations, discussing the benefits of study abroad and programs available to SPU students
- Assist with campus events such as the study abroad fair and staff information tables on campus
- Work on special projects as assigned by advisors or create your own!

Program Eligibility:

- Must have at least sophomore status and have a GPA of 2.8 or higher
- Must have previously studied abroad (either through SPU or another University or provider) and be enthusiastic about sharing this experience with others
- Must be self-motivated, dedicated, dependable, and able to work independently

Benefits:

Global ambassadors will have many opportunities to gain valuable experience for their resumes including campus networking opportunities, leadership and public speaking experience, as well as letters of recommendation from the study abroad office.

Application Instructions:

Interested applicants should complete the attached application and return it to SPU Study Abroad in Lower Moyer B12. We will contact qualified applicants within 2 weeks to set up a 15-20 minute interview. The interview will be informal, and topics will include your study abroad experience, your interests and what you think you can contribute to the Ambassador program. If you have questions please contact Cassandra Sanchez, sanchezc@spu.edu or 206-281-2924
